

YOU...Is Enough

Loved. Chosen. Enough.

Overview

In a world that constantly shouts “do more, be more, prove more,” students are left exhausted and empty. In this keynote, Branden Pannell delivers a freeing reminder: your worth isn’t defined by grades, followers, or performance—it’s defined by God. Through honest storytelling and practical encouragement, Branden challenges the lies of comparison and insecurity, pointing students back to the unshakable truth that in Christ, they are already enough.

Key Takeaways

- Identity in Christ – Know who you are and whose you are.
- Breaking Comparison – Stop measuring your worth by someone else’s highlight reel.
- Grace Over Perfection – Discover the power of God’s love in your flaws and failures.
- Walk in Freedom – Live confidently, knowing nothing can take away your value in Him.

Audience Fit

Perfect for high school and college audiences, this talk speaks to the silent struggles of self-worth and identity. Students leave with a renewed confidence—not in what they do, but in who God says they are.
